What a lovely week we've had in school this week! Monday got off to a flying start when Mr May (Casey's Dad) came into school to play the drums for the children. He was absolutely fantastic and the children loved it. Lots of the children had a turn at playing the drums and were so confident. It was a fabulous way to start the week!

On Wednesday, it was time for our Christmas lunch. Mrs Madden whipped up a delicious feast and the Christmas Crackers went down a treat too. There were lots of happy, smiling faces! Then, in the afternoon we celebrated the Jewish festival of Hanukkah in each class. Each class heard the story of Hanukkah and then took part in some fun craft activities.

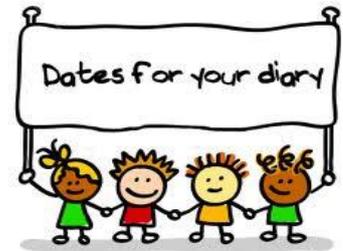

Then, Thursday was super busy as we headed to Consett Empire Theatre in the morning to watch Jack and the Beanstalk. It was excellent. The dancing and singing were superb and it was great to see the children joining in. They even loved getting soaked when the super soaker came around, especially when they got the teachers! After school it was time for our disco. A huge thanks to Mia's Mum and Dad for putting on another fantastic event! There were lots of happy children enjoying the music and games.
