Issue Number: 3

As Autumn firmly feels like it has arrived, Sunnybrow has been a hive of activity. Class One are enjoying their topic on owls and have been creating some wonderful dough models and owl collages. I have been able to get in on the action too, and have loved seeing how engaged all of the children are in their learning!

Class Two had a visit from Burglar Bill this week! They got the chance to put him in the hot seat and ask him some questions to help them with their English work. It certainly paid off, as the Miss Wild and Mrs Featherstone proudly showed me some of the children's character descriptions and they were fantastic!

It has been all go in English in Class Three this week as well! The children tried their hand at some drama by recreating the story of Flotsam by David Wiesner. Each group took a scene from the book and had a go at creating their own freeze-frame showing their own interpretation of what was happening. Mr Vincent was very impressed with some of the acting skills amongst the class.

Class Four children have been enjoying our school library and have started a book club, where children can recommend the book they have recently read. Bradley has been reading Diary of a Wimpy Kid and gave a super recommendation to his class!

Worried about a child out of school hours?

calls: essentially, the more that people chat, the more features become available to them. This is an app designed with mature users very much in mind and is therefore definitely not recommended for children. Read this week's #Wake up Wednesday guide to find out more.
